

What do you learn about the business of cannabis and CBD hemp when you live in the heart of the Emerald Triangle? ALL OF IT! Particularly if you start out working for a compliance testing lab in the newly-legalized landscape. I advised many, many entrepreneurs on their first steps, and kept a lot of – let’s call them “generational” – growers’ butts out of hot water.

There are a lot of moving parts to beginning and maintaining healthy businesses in the hemp and cannabis space. I’ve seen first-hand how new companies succeed AND, unfortunately, fail. I know what to focus on and when. I can help you through the red tape, banking woes, and day-to-day operations.

Let’s GO! Let’s GROW! How can The Kubota Company help you?
